With a Time Deposit Account, you agree to leave your funds in the Account for a specific period of time called the "term." The last day of the term is the "maturity date." The maturity date is the first day you may withdraw funds without paying an early withdrawal penalty. Please refer to your Certificate of Deposit New Account Application for specific terms and conditions, including, interest rate, annual percentage yield, maturity date, nature of renewal and other terms and conditions regarding your Time Deposit.
- Rate Information - The interest rate on your Account is _____% with an annual percentage yield of _____%. Your Certificate will mature on _____. - Transaction limitations - After the Account is opened, you may not make any deposits into your Account before maturity.

- You may make withdrawals of principal from your Account before maturity only if we agree at the time you request the withdrawal. Principal withdrawn before maturity is included in the amount subject to early withdrawal penalty. Interest withdrawals can be made during term without penalty, only on interest amounts credited to the Account.
- Early withdrawal penalties - For an Account with terms of 31 days or less the penalty will be the greatest of: (i) all of the interest earned on the amount withdrawn from the most recent date of deposit or last renewal, (ii) all the interest that could have been earned on the amount withdrawn, during a period equal to one-half of the maturity period, or (iii) seven day's interest on the amount withdrawn.
- For an Account with an original term of more than 31 days and up to 3 months, the penalty will be 1 month's interest on the amount withdrawn.
- For an Account with an original term of more than 3 months and up to 6 months, the penalty will be three month's interest.

- In certain circumstances such as the death or incompetence of an owner of this Account, the law permits, or in some cases requires the waiver of the early withdrawal penalty.

Renewal Policy

- Automatically renewable time Account - This Account will automatically renew at maturity. You may prevent renewal if we receive written notice from you before maturity of your intention not to renew or you withdraw the funds in the Account at maturity (or within the grace period mentioned below, if any). If you prevent renewal, interest will not accrue after final maturity. Each renewal term will be the same as the original term, beginning on the maturity date. The interest rate will be the current rate we offer on new time deposits which have the same term minimum balance (if any) and other features as the original time deposit. You will have 7 calendar days after maturity to withdraw the funds without a penalty if the term is 31 days or more. You will have one day after maturity to withdraw the funds without a penalty, if the term is 30 days or less.
- Non-automatically renewable time Account – This Account will not automatically renew at maturity. If you do not renew the Account, interest will not accrue after maturity

F. Interest-bearing Demand Deposit Accounts

Demand Deposit Accounts are generally non-interest bearing Accounts. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Helm may, at its sole and absolute discretion, offer interest-bearing Demand Deposit Accounts to its Customers, on a case-by-case basis and from time to time on such terms and conditions acceptable to Helm in its sole and absolute discretion. For more information on minimum balance requirements, interest rates, annual percentage yields and fees for interest-bearing Demand Deposit Accounts, please contact your relationship manager.

G. General Interest Rate Information

We reserve the right, at our sole discretion to change the interest rates and annual percentage yield paid by us on any interest-bearing Account. The interest rate and annual percentage yield we offer on the same type of Account may be higher or lower based on the specific Customer, Account location or channel through which the Account is opened. We may also consider your relationship with us in setting interest rates on your Account, such as whether you have other Accounts with us, your balances with us in your other Accounts and how you use services that we offer with your Accounts. We occasionally offer special promotions on specific Accounts and/or to specific Customers. These offers do not apply to all Accounts, Customers, or methods of Account opening. For current interest rates and annual percentage yields, contact your relationship manager.

We may require no less than seven (7) days' notice in writing before each withdrawal from an interest-bearing Account other than a Time Deposit, or from any other savings Account as defined by Regulations D (12C.F.R. Part 204). Withdrawals from a Time Deposit Account prior to maturity or prior to any notice period may be restricted and may be subject to penalty. See your notice of penalty for early withdrawal fees.

H. Pay/Transfer on Death Account

To establish this type of deposit or investment Account payable to a third party upon your death, you must execute and deliver to Helm a separate Pay-on- Death/Transfer-On-Death agreement in the form required by Helm.

I. Accounts, Products and Services

Helm may offer new, discontinue and/or convert Accounts, products and services from time to time and in its sole and absolute discretion. The type of Accounts, products and services we offer may vary depending on the specific Customer, Account location or channel through which the Account, product or service is opened or maintained. In determining which Accounts, products or services we may offer to you from time to time, we may consider your relationship with us, whether you have other Accounts with us, your balances with us in your other Accounts and how you use services that we offer with your Accounts. We occasionally offer special promotions on specific Accounts products and services and/or to specific Customers. These offers do not apply to all Accounts, products, services, Customers, or methods of Account opening.

By continuing to maintain your Account, you agree to pay all fees applicable to your Account, transactions you engage in, and services you use. We provided you a schedule of fees when you opened your Account, and will notify you of any changes. We may subtract these fees from your balance, even if the fee makes your balance negative and creates an overdraft in your Account.

7. Joint Account

If an Account is in the name of more than one individual, Helm shall treat the Account as a joint tenancy with right of survivorship and not as a tenancy in common ("Joint Account"). A Joint Account shall be subject to the terms and conditions generally governing such an Account, including but not limited to the following: (a) upon the death of any Customer to the Joint Account, the survivor(s) shall be the sole owner(s) of the Joint Account; (b) all funds deposited in the Joint Account shall be held and owned by any one Customer as his or her undivided property with right of survivorship; (c) each Customer shall have full power to control and to act singly in all matters related to the Joint Account as if it were owned by that Customer individually including but not limited to, the following: (i) any Customer is authorized to deposit in the Joint Account monies belonging to and/or items payable to one or more Customer and to endorse same or deposit same to Helm without endorsement; (ii) any Customer is authorized to withdraw and/or transfer funds from a Joint Account; (iii) any Customer is authorized to obtain any information regarding the Joint Account; and (iv) to the extent permitted by Helm, any Customer may pledge, assign or grant a security interest in the Joint Account; and in any funds deposited therein. The foregoing subsection (c) notwithstanding, the Helm is authorized, at its sole and absolute discretion, to require the signatures of all Authorized Persons or Customers of a Joint Account in order to honor the transaction of any activity with respect to the Joint Account.

We are authorized to withdraw, transfer or pay any monies on such Joint Account upon the order of: (a) any Customer, (b) any surviving Customer, or (c) in the event of the death of all Customers, to the executor, administrator or personal representative of any Customer, without regard to the original ownership of the monies deposited. Any Customer may request a Stop Payment (pursuant to Paragraph 34 of this Agreement) on any items drawn on the Joint Account. We may, at any time and at our sole discretion, decline to pay any or all items drawn on a Joint Account except for items drawn by or to the order of every Customer thereunder.

Each Customer to a Joint Account shall be jointly and severally liable to Helm for all charges and overdrafts or any other liabilities occurring in the Joint Account, regardless of which Customer participated in such overdraft or liability, or benefited from its proceeds.

We shall have no obligation to notify any Customer regarding any action in the Joint Account or changes to a Joint Account made by any other Customer. Although Helm shall have no obligation to notify a Customer regarding any change to or other action concerning the Account made or taken by Customer, Helm may, notwithstanding any other provisions of this paragraph, require the signatures of all Customers in order to pay any item or take any other action relating to the Account, if Helm has received conflicting demands or instructions from any two or more Customers, has received an instruction signed by less than all Customers seeking to change the title of (or restrict the payment or transfer of funds in) the Account, or has concluded for any other reason, in Helm's discretion, that it is prudent to require the signatures of all Customers. If a Joint Account is in the name of a husband and wife, we shall treat such Joint Account as a tenancy by the entireties rather than a Joint Account; however, such tenancy by the entireties will nevertheless be subject to the provisions for Joint Accounts set forth herein.

8. Multiple-Owner Accounts

In the event that an Account is owned by more than one individual: (a) all the express and implied obligations of the Customer(s) under this Agreement shall be deemed to be joint and several obligations; (b) all references in the Agreement to the Customer shall, to the extent the context permits, be deemed to be references to all Customers on the Account or to any of them; (c) any notice, statement, or other communication given by Helm in accordance with the instructions specified in Paragraph 53 shall be deemed to be given to all of the Customers on the Account; (d) any instruction or other communication (whether oral or written or by telephone, e-mail, telefax, or other electronic transmission) given by any Authorized Signer(s) on the Account be binding on all Customers on the Account as if they had all given it; and (e) the surviving Customer(s) shall immediately notify Helm of the deaths of any Customer(s) on the Account.

9. Certification of Foreign Status Or Tax Identification Number

Every Authorized Person on an Account must: (a) independently certify his, her or, in the case of a corporation, partnership, trust, or other entity not organized under the laws of the United States, its status as a nonresident alien for United States income tax purposes by providing a completed Internal Revenue Service Form W-8BEN or other appropriate Form W-8 series form; or (b) certify the accuracy of his, her or, in the case of a corporation, partnership, trust, or other entity organized under the laws of the United States, its U.S. tax identification number by providing a completed Internal Revenue Service Form W-9. Alternatively, the above certifications may be provided on any substitute Form W-8BEN or substitute Form W-9, as the case may be. A Customer's certification of non-resident alien status for United States income tax purposes must be renewed by the last day of the third calendar year following the year in which the certification is signed. Helm reserves the right to close an Account or to refuse any transaction to or from the Account if the certification forms are not filed with Helm or are not timely renewed. If a Customer who has certified non-resident alien status for United States income tax purposes at the time of opening an Account with Helm later becomes a U.S. Citizen or resident for United States income tax purposes, written certification must be given to Helm within thirty (30) days of the change in status, on a form to be obtained from Helm. Helm will report the interest earned on each Account owned by the Customer and will also backup withhold, unless the Customer provides Helm with the required certifications.

10. Account Ownership/Control and Claims

The ownership of an Account (or any part thereof) may not be transferred and/ or assigned without Helm's prior written consent. You may request a change of ownership of your Account by submitting such a request and obtaining Helm's written consent. In the event that the ownership and/or control of an Account or of any funds deposited therein, or any portion thereof, is the subject of a claim against Helm or otherwise becomes an issue, Helm may, at its sole discretion and without any liability to you whatsoever, place a hold on the Account or on the balance of funds deposited in the Account, or any portion thereof, and withhold any payment, withdrawal or transfer from such Account until the claims issue has been resolved to Helm's sole and complete satisfaction.

11. Death or Incompetence of Account Owner

Tell us immediately if any Account owner dies or is declared incompetent by a court. We may act as if all owners are alive and competent until we receive notice otherwise.

After we receive notice of death or incompetence, we may freeze your balance, refuse to accept transactions, and reverse or return deposits. We are also not required to release your funds until we receive any documents we reasonably request to verify your death or incompetence, as well as who is entitled to the funds. If we have any tax liability because of paying your balance to your estate, the estate will be responsible for repaying us the amount of that tax. If an Account owner authorizes any transaction, but it's not presented for payment until after that owner dies, we are authorized to pay the transaction. If you owe us a debt at the time of your death, we are authorized to exercise our right of setoff (our right to apply funds in one Account to the debt associated with another Account) or security interest rights against the funds credited to your balance after your death. We have these rights even if a surviving joint owner, a "payable on death" payee, or a beneficiary of an "in trust for" or "trustee for" Account has rights to the Account.

12. Dormant Accounts

You agree to maintain your Account(s) active. Nevertheless, if no deposits have been made or no items have been drawn on an Account for a period of twelve (12) months, the Account shall be classified as a Dormant Account and shall be subject to Dormant Account fees in addition to any applicable Account fees set forth herein. Dormant Account fees will be varied by Helm from time to time at its sole discretion as disclosed in the Helm's then current Products, Services and Fees Schedule. Helm reserves the right to withhold any payment withdrawal or transfer from a Dormant Account until Helm, to its sole and complete satisfaction, is able to reestablish contact with you.

Under applicable law, we must turn over to the appropriate State of Florida authorities any funds deposited in an Account, if you have not done at least one of the following for at least five (5) years:

- Deposited or withdrawn funds when you presented your Passbook or Certificate to have us record your interest.
- Signed our Dormant Correspondence form.
- Written to us concerning the Account.

Prior to turning funds to the state authorities, Helm will mail a notice to your last known address. If you do not respond by the date set forth for response in the notice, we will forward the funds in the Dormant Account to the appropriate state authority. You can retrieve the funds by contacting the appropriate state authority at the address set forth in the notice. A Time Deposit Account that has not reached maturity is not considered dormant, but if the Account renews automatically, it can become dormant in our records starting after the maturity date.

13. Conversion of Account

We can convert your Account to another type of deposit Account (by giving you any required notice) if:

- You use it inappropriately or fail to meet or maintain the Account's requirements, or
- We determine the Account is inappropriate for you based on your use, or
- We stop offering the type of Account you have.

14. Restricted Access

We may restrict access to your Account if we suspect any suspicious, unauthorized, or unlawful activities.

After the expiration of five (5) Banking Days from the date of the mailing of the Notice of Closure, the Account shall be considered closed. We, at our sole discretion, may either (a) mail a check to you via the U.S. Mail or internationally recognized courier to the aforementioned address; or (b) wire transfer to you the balance, if any, of funds in deposit in the Account. Upon mailing to you a Notice of Closure, we may thereafter refuse to accept deposits to such an Account, permit withdrawals, collect any item deposited therefor and/or transact any matter in relation to the Account. We shall not be liable for dishonoring any item drawn on an Account and/or for failing to act upon any funds transfer payment order submitted on an Account which is to be closed if the item is presented for payment or the payment order is submitted for execution after remittance of the Notice of Closure. Upon the closing of an Account, we shall thereafter be relieved of any further legal responsibility or liability related to such Account.

You can request to close your Account at any time if the Account is in good standing (e.g., does not have a negative balance or restrictions such as holds on funds, legal order holds, or court blocks on the Account). At the time of your request, we will assist you in withdrawing or transferring any remaining funds, bringing your Account balance to zero. All outstanding items need to be processed and posted to your Account before your request to close once the Account is closed items will be returned unpaid. Any recurring payments or withdrawals from your Account need to be cancelled before your request to close (examples include bill payments, debit card payments, and direct deposits) otherwise, they may be returned unpaid.

That statute requires the Bank to perform a data match and provide certain Account holder information of certain taxpayers to the Florida Department of Revenue.

17. Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act (FATCA)

Under Sections 1471 through 1474 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, (the "Code"), or any amended or successor version that is substantively comparable, any current or future regulations or official interpretations thereof and any agreements entered into pursuant to Section 1471(b)(1) of the Code (collectively, "FATCA"), the Helm, other U.S. financial institutions ("USFIs") and other types of withholding agents are required to withhold thirty percent (30%) on certain U.S. source payments made to foreign entities, including foreign financial institutions ("FFIs"), if they are unable to document such entities' status for purposes of FATCA. USFIs (including the Helm) and other withholding agents subject to FATCA must also report to the U.S. Internal Revenue Service ("IRS") information about certain non-financial foreign entities with substantial U.S. owners. In light of the foregoing, you hereby represent, warrant, acknowledge and agree as follows:

- A. FATCA; General Exculpation of Liability. You hereby acknowledge and agree that if a payment made to you by us in connection with an Account, this Agreement, or any products or services provided by us to you would be subject to U.S. federal withholding tax imposed by FATCA, you shall deliver to us at the time or times prescribed by law and at such time or times requested by us, such documentation requested by us as may be necessary for us to comply with our obligations under FATCA to determine that you have complied your obligations under FATCA or to determine the amount to deduct and withhold from such payment. In accordance with the terms of this Agreement, the Helm, its affiliates and each of their respective directors, officers, employees, attorneys, and agents (collectively, the "Exculpated Parties"), shall not at any time incur any liability to you (and you hereby expressly waive and release any and all claims and causes of action which you may at any time have against any Exculpated Party in connection with any acts, omissions, or circumstances at any time or times arising out of or relating to any of our obligations with respect to FATCA, including, as applicable, reporting of information or withholding on any payments received or originated by you.
- B. Customer Obligations. You are in the best position to determine your U.S. or foreign status, FATCA Chapter 4 status (as such term is defined in FATCA) and the status of your payees in connection with your Account (each, as applicable, "FATCA status"). Accordingly, you hereby agree to provide us with such documentation or information we may request or deem necessary (in our sole discretion) from time to time to comply with our obligations under FATCA, including, but not limited to, any one or more of the following:
- A true and correct withholding certificate (e.g., W-8BEN, W-8BEN-E, W-9, etc.) for your Account(s) or the payee;
 - With respect to an Account held by or payee that is a FFI, a true and correct withholding certificate that identifies the FFI as a participating FFI ("PFFI"), deemed-compliant FFI, registered deemed-compliant FFI, certified deemed-compliant FFI or such other FATCA classification applicable to such FFI;
 - With respect to an Account held by or payee that is a FFI required to obtain a Global Intermediary Identification Number ("GIIN"), documentary evidence that the FFI has registered with the IRS and obtained a valid GIIN;
 - With respect to an Account held by or payee that is a non-financial foreign entity ("NFFE") or an exempt beneficial owner, a true and correct withholding certificate identifying the Account holder or payee as an excepted NFFE, passive NFFE or an exempt beneficial owner. Examples of excepted NFFEs, include, but are not limited to: publicly traded companies, affiliates of publicly traded companies, non-profits, and active NFFE (means a foreign business whose passive income is less than 50% of gross income). Examples of exempt beneficial owners, include, but are not limited to: any foreign government, any political subdivision of a foreign government, or any wholly owned agency or instrumentality of any one or more of the foregoing; foreign central bank of issue (e.g., such banks are generally the custodian of the banking reserves of the country, Helm for International Settlements, etc.); governments of U.S. Territories; and certain retirement funds;
 - Any other written documentation or certification reflecting the nature of payment (i.e., showing it is not a withholdable payment under FATCA) or the FATCA status of the payee consistent with the provisions of the Code and/or regulations promulgated under FATCA;

- Documentary evidence regarding the nature of the payment as not U.S. source fixed, determinable, annual, periodical income ("FDAP") or U.S. source gross proceeds, as those terms are defined in FATCA;
- A certificate of residence issued by an appropriate tax official of the foreign country claimed by you or the payee as the country of residence that indicates that such party has filed its most recent income tax return as a resident of that country;
- With respect to an individual, valid identification issued by an authorized government body (for example, a government or agency thereof, or a municipality), that is typically used for identification purposes;
- With respect to an Account maintained in a jurisdiction with anti-money laundering rules that have been approved by the IRS in connection with a Qualified Intermediary agreement (a "QI Agreement"), any of the documents other than a withholding certificate referenced in the jurisdiction's attachment to the QI agreement for identifying individuals or entities;
- With respect to an entity, any official documentation issued by an authorized government body (for example, a government or agency thereof, or a municipality);
- For a payment made with respect to an offshore obligation to an individual, a third-party credit report;
- With respect to an entity other than a PFFI or registered deemed-compliant FFI, any organizational document (such as articles of incorporation or a trust agreement), financial statement, third-party credit report, letter from a government agency, or statement from a government Web site, agency, or registrar (such as an SEC report) depending on the FATCA status of the entity; or
- A letter from an auditor or attorney with a location in the U.S. that is not related to the withholding agent or payee and is subject to the authority of a regulatory body that governs the auditor's or attorney's review of the FATCA status of the payee, any bankruptcy filing, corporate resolution, copy of a stock market index or other document depending on the FATCA status of the payee.

In the absence of the provision of the information/documentation summarized above (i.e., U.S. or foreign status, FATCA status and the status of your payees in connection with your FATCA status), we may be required under FATCA to withhold thirty percent (30%) on payments to or from your Account(s).

- C. Due Diligence Obligations. We shall perform due diligence in order to determine if you are a U.S. person. Further, we may ask you questions with respect to your U.S. Tax payer status and will require you to complete a W-9 or W-8, as applicable. In addition, we will inquire as to the nature of your payments (foreign and domestic), the payee, and/or the status of the foreign beneficiary bank/financial institution in order to comply with our obligations under FATCA.
- D. FATCA Withholding. In the event that we are unable to determine that a payment made to or from your Account is subject to withholding under FATCA or you have not met your obligations as summarized above, you hereby acknowledge and agree that we may, in our sole discretion, withhold thirty percent (30%) of the gross amount of such payment.
- E. Reporting. As a USFI, the Helm must report to the IRS certain information about certain non-financial foreign entities with substantial U.S. owners and payments made to nonparticipating FFIs. To the extent you fall in one of these categories or you fail to cooperate with the Helm in confirming your FATCA Status, you hereby authorize the Helm to report such information (including, without limitation, your name, tax identification number, address, Account number, Account balance and information on payments made to you) to the IRS or the designated governmental authority in an intergovernmental agreement (if applicable) and hereby waive any rights you may have under applicable law with respect to the confidentiality or privacy of such information.
- F. Change in Circumstances. For purposes of FATCA, a "change in circumstances" in your status has occurred if such change results in the addition or modification to information (e.g., U.S. indicia that is not otherwise cured by documentation on file and that is relevant to your FATCA Status claimed) relevant to a person's claim of foreign status or otherwise conflicts with such person's FATCA Status. A change in circumstances affecting the withholding information provided to us, will terminate the validity of the withholding certificate

(i.e., W-8 or W-9) with respect to the information that is no longer reliable, until the information is updated. Accordingly, you have an obligation to notify us of a change in circumstances. If a change in circumstances makes any information on a withholding certificate or other documentation unreliable or incorrect, you must notify us within thirty (30) days of such change and furnish a new withholding certificate together with such documentary evidence we may require in our sole discretion to verify the validity of the information or documentation you have presented.

- G. Closing of Account; Suspension of Services. Closing of Account; Suspension of Services. To the extent you fail to comply with your obligations in this Paragraph 17, we may, at our sole discretion, close your Account or suspend any services provided by us in connection with your Account in accordance with Paragraph 15.

18. Collection and Return of Deposits

We are responsible for exercising ordinary care when collecting a deposited item. We will not be responsible for the lack of care of any other bank involved in the collection or return of a deposited item, or for an item lost in collection or return.

We can deduct the amount of the deposited or cashed item from your Account (or any other Account you maintain with us.) We can do this when we are notified that the item will be returned. We do not need to receive the actual item (and usually do not receive it). We can do this even if you have withdrawn the funds and the balance in your Account is not sufficient to cover the amount we hold or deduct and your Account becomes overdrawn. In addition, we will charge you all applicable fees and reverse all interest accrued on the item. We may place a hold on or charge your Account for any check or other item deposited into your Account if a claim is made or we otherwise have reason to believe the check or other item was altered, forged, unauthorized, has a missing signature, a missing or forged endorsement, or should not have been paid, or may not be paid, or for any other reason. When the claim is finally resolved, we will either release the hold or deduct the amount of the item from your Account. We are not legally responsible if we take or fail to take any action to recover payment of a returned deposited item.

We may deduct the amount of an electronic payment credited to your Account (e.g., direct deposit) that is reversed. We can deduct the amount from any Account you have with us at any time without notifying you. You agree to promptly repay any overdrafts resulting from the reversed payment.

If a deposited item is lost or destroyed during processing or collection, you agree to provide all reasonable assistance to help us reconstruct the item.

19. Funds Availability Policy

- General Policy

At Helm, we take the trust you have placed in us as your banker very seriously. Therefore, we attempt to provide you with the earliest funds availability consistent with our need for sound banking practices. It is also designed to protect Helm from unjustified risk of loss through dishonored and returned checks. Our policy is to be in accordance with Regulation CC or other applicable Federal regulation on the availability of funds on your cash, check deposits and Electronic payments. During the delay, you may not withdraw the funds in cash and we will not use the funds to pay checks that you have written except as provided herein. But, Helm may choose to give early availability funds (same day availability) on some transactions. Remember that even after we have made funds available to you, you are still responsible for any returned items charged to your Account.

- Determining the Availability of a Deposit

The length of the delay is counted in Banking Days from the day of your deposit. Every day is a banking day except Saturdays, Sundays, holidays, and any other day financial institutions in Miami, Florida, U.S. are not open for business. If you make a deposit before 4:00 p.m. on a Banking Day that we are open, we will consider that day to be the day of your deposit. However, if you make a deposit after 4:00 p.m. or on a day we are not open, we will consider that the deposit was made on the next Banking Day we are open. The length of the delay varies depending on the type of deposit and is explained below.

- Same Banking Day Availability

Funds from electronic direct deposits to your Account will be available on the day we receive the deposit.

- Cash, when presented in person to one of our Associates.
- Wire transfers, including pre authorized credits, such as social security benefits and payroll checks.
- Next Banking Day Availability

Funds from the following deposits are available for withdrawal on the first (1st) Banking Day after the day of your deposit (for example, if you deposit any of these items on Monday before 4:00 pm E.T., funds will be available on Tuesday).

- U.S. Treasury checks that are payable to you.
- State and local government checks that are payable to you.
- Cashier's, certified, and teller's checks that are payable to you.
- Federal Reserve Bank checks, Federal Home loan bank checks and postal money orders, if these items are payable to you.
- Checks drawn on Helm.
- The first $225.00 or the total amount of the deposit if it is less than $225.00.
- Second Banking Day Availability
 - If you do not make your deposit in person to one of our Associates (for example, you mail the deposit) funds will be available on the second (2nd) Banking Day after the day of your deposit (for example, if you mail a cashier's check that we receive Monday evening, those funds will be available on Wednesday).
 - The remaining funds from the first $225.00 from a deposit of other checks will be available on the second (2nd) Banking Day after the day of your deposit. (Other checks may be subject to longer hold periods as specified below).

Note: The Board of Governors amended the routing number guide to next day availability checks and local-checks in Regulation CC. Subsequently, there will only be a single check-processing region for Regulation CC purposes and there will no longer be any checks that are non-local. All checks drawn in the U.S. should have two (2) days hold.

- Longer delays may apply

Funds you deposit by check may be delayed for a longer period under the following circumstances:

- New Accounts.
- We believe a check you deposit will not be paid.
- You deposit checks totaling more than $5,525 on any one day.
- You redeposit a check that has been returned unpaid.
- You have overdrawn your Account repeatedly in the last six (6) months.
- There is an emergency, such as failure of communications or computer equipment.

We will notify you if we delay your ability to withdraw funds for any of these reasons, and we will tell you when the funds will be available. They will generally be available no later than the seventh (7th) Banking Day after the day of your deposit.

If you need the funds from a deposit right away, you may ask us when the funds will be available for withdrawal.

- Hold of Other Funds

If we cash a check for you that is drawn on another bank, we may withhold the availability of a corresponding amount of funds that are already in your Account. Such funds will be available at the time funds from the check we cashed would have been available if you had deposited such check. If we accept for deposit a check that is drawn on another bank, we may have funds from the deposit available for withdrawal immediately but delay your ability to withdraw a corresponding amount of funds that you have on deposit in another Account with us. The funds in the other Account would then not be available for withdrawal until the time funds would have been available if you had deposited the funds directly into the Account

- Special Rules for New Accounts

If you are a new Customer, the following special rules will apply during the first thirty (30) days your Account is open. Funds from electronic direct deposits to your Account will be available on the day we receive the deposit. Funds from deposits of cash, wire transfers, and the first $5,525 of a day's total deposits of cashier's, certified, teller's, traveler's, and federal, state and local government checks will be available on the first (1st) Banking Day after the day of your deposit, if the deposit meets certain conditions. Funds from deposits of checks drawn on Helm will be available on the first banking day after the day of your deposit. If you do not make your deposit in person to one of our associates (for example, you mail the deposit) funds will be available on the second (2nd) Banking Day after the day of your deposit. The remaining balance exceeding $5,525 will be available on the fifth (5th) Banking Day after the day of your deposit.

20. Endorsements

Helm may, at its discretion, accept any item endorsed for deposit to an Account and such endorsements may be made manually, with type, by stamp, or otherwise; and any such endorsement will be treated as genuine in all respects and as warranting and guaranteeing all prior endorsements thereon. Payment of an item will be rejected, unless specifically accepted for deposit by Helm, if it is endorsed in pencil, if improperly prepared, if illegible or if the item contains a double endorsement. Any item payable to a Customer may be deposited in and credited to an Account without being endorsed by the payee(s) if the Account title is in the same name as the payee. Helm shall have no liability to you in connection with delays or errors in the return of any item deposited to an Account when the error or lateness is caused by markings on the item made by or on behalf of Customer or a prior endorser in the area of the item reserved for the depository bank endorsement.

It is policy of Helm not to accept checks for deposit with double endorsements. Any exception to policy must be approved by the designated Bank officer.

21. Check 21 - Substitute Checks

When you draw a check on an Account you may receive back from us a substitute check instead of the original check. Similarly, when you deposit a check in an Account, if the item is not paid you may receive from us a substitute check instead of the original.

What is a substitute check? To make check processing faster, federal law permits Helm to replace original checks with "substitute checks." These checks are similar in size to original checks with a slightly reduced image of the front and back of the original check. The front of a substitute check states: "This is a legal copy of your check. You can use it the same way you would use the original check." You may use a substitute check as proof of payment just like the original check. Some or all of the checks that you receive back from us may be substitute checks. This notice describes rights you have when you receive substitute checks from us. The rights in this notice do not apply to original checks or to electronic debits to your Account. However, you have rights under other law with respect to those transactions.

What are your rights regarding substitute checks? A consumer is an individual who either draws a check on, or deposits a check into, or cashes a check against, an Account used primarily for personal, family, or household purposes. If you are a consumer, in certain cases, federal law provides a special procedure that allows you to request a refund for losses you suffer if a substitute check is posted to your Account (for example, if you think that we withdrew the wrong amount from your Account or that we withdrew money from your Account more than once for the same check). The losses you may attempt to recover under this procedure may include the amount that was withdrawn from your Account and fees that were charged as a result of the withdrawal (for example, bounced check fees). The amount of your refund under this procedure is limited to the amount of your loss or the amount of the substitute check, whichever is less. You also are entitled to interest on the amount of your refund if your Account is an interest-bearing Account. If your loss exceeds the amount of the substitute check, you may be able to recover additional amounts under other law. If you use this procedure, you may receive up to $2,500.00 of your refund (plus interest if your Account earns interest) within ten (10) Banking Days after we received your claim and the remainder of your refund (plus interest if your Account earns interest) no later than forty-five (45) calendar days after we received your claim. We may reverse the refund (including any interest on the refund) if we later are able to demonstrate that the substitute check was correctly posted to your Account.

How do you make a claim for a refund? If you believe that you have suffered a loss relating to a substitute check that you received and that was posted to your Account, please contact our Operations Department. You must contact us within forty (40) calendar days of the date that we mailed (or otherwise delivered by a means to which you agreed) the substitute check in question or the Account statement showing that the substitute check was posted to your Account, whichever is later. We will extend this time period if you were not able to make a timely claim because of extraordinary circumstances. Your claim must include:

- A description of why you have suffered a loss (for example, you think the amount withdrawn was incorrect);
- An estimate of the amount of your loss;
- An explanation of why the substitute check you received is insufficient to confirm that you suffered a loss; and
- A copy of the substitute check and the following information to help us identify the substitute check: the check number, the name of the person to whom you wrote the check, the amount of the check, your Account number and the date of the check.

Unless we specifically permit you to do so, at our sole discretion, you may not deposit in an Account any substitute check that has not been created or previously transferred/presented for payment by a bank (12 U.S.C. § 5002(2)) in the U.S. check collection process. This means that, unless we enter into a specific agreement with you to do so, you cannot deposit in an Account, among others, a substitute check that is created by: (a) an individual; (b) a nonbank entity; or (c) a foreign bank outside the U.S. check collection process.

22. Payment of Items

Helm may, at its discretion, refuse payment of, and return as unpaid, any item drawn on an Account if the balance of collected funds in the Account is insufficient to pay the total amount of such item, and a service fee will be charged against the Account for the processing and return of the item. Helm may, in its discretion disregard any information on a check presented for payment on your Account other than the signature(s) of the drawers, the identification of the drawee bank, the payee, the amount, the date and the information which appears in the MICR line. Customer agrees to be liable for any damages suffered by the Helm as a result of any other information written on the face or back of any check. Helm accepts no responsibility for the payment of items which are presented the same Banking Day on which deposits are made to an Account, unless there is already a sufficient balance of collected funds in the Account to pay the total amount of such item. Payment of an item may be refused by Helm, at its sole discretion, if the item is written in pencil, illegible, improperly prepared, stale or post-dated, presented beyond the date of payment, contains a double endorsement or is not negotiable for any reason.

23. Restrictions or Notations on Checks

We are not bound by restrictions or notations, such as "void after six months," "void over $50," or "payment in full." When you cash or deposit a check with a notation or restriction, you are responsible for any loss or expense we incur relating to the notation or restriction.

24. Automated Clearing House (ACH) / Debits and Credits

From time to time, originators that Customer authorizes may send automated clearinghouse ("ACH") credits or debits for Customer's Accounts. These ACH transactions may include transactions that Customer may initiate by check but which a merchant or other payee converts to an electronic debit whether the check is presented at the point of sale or mailed to a merchant or other payee. For each ACH transaction, Customer agrees that the transaction is subject to the National Automated Clearing House Association ("NACHA") Operating Rules and any local ACH operating rules then in effect. Customer agrees that we may rely on the representations and warranties contained in these operating rules and either credit or debit your Account, as instructed by the originator of the ACH transaction. Customer should avoid sharing Customer's Account number with third parties to help prevent unauthorized transactions on Customer's Accounts. Customer must notify us immediately of any unauthorized activity occurring in the Customer's Account(s).

The following terms apply to payments to or from your Account that are transmitted through an ACH:

- Your rights as to payments to or from your Account will be based upon the laws governing your Account.
- Credit given by a receiving bank to its customer for a payment from your Account is provisional until final settlement has been made or until payment is considered received under the laws governing your Account.
- If payment is made to your Account and Helm does not receive final settlement or payment is not received under the laws governing your Account, you will not be considered to have received payment and Helm will be entitled to reimbursement from you for that payment.
- You hereby authorize any originating depository financial institution to initiate pursuant to ACH operating rules, ACH debit entries to your Account for electronic presentment or re-presentment of items written or authorized by you.
- Unless Helm has otherwise agreed in writing, we will notify you of funds debited or credited to your Account through the Statement (as defined below) covering the period in which the transaction occurred. Helm is under no obligation to provide you with any additional notice or receipt.

25. Automated Clearing House (ACH)/Stop Payment Orders

From time to time, Helm may receive ACH debits to Customer's Account from senders Customer previously authorized to debit Customer's Account. Customer may ask Helm to stop payment on a future ACH debit to Customer's Account if the item has not already been paid (an "ACH Stop Payment"). Customer is responsible for notifying Customer's sender that Customer has revoked Customer's previous authorization for ACH debits. For an ACH Stop Payment order, Helm also needs information such as: Customer's name and telephone number and the type of Account (demand deposit, money market, etc.). Helm may also need the date on which a prior ACH debit from this sender was posted to the Account so that Helm can obtain the sender name and sender identification number used by the Customer's sender and printed on Customer's statement. Otherwise, Customer must provide Helm with the company name and company identification number.

A request for ACH Stop Payment for a Consumer Account will remain effective until the earlier of: (a) the withdrawal of the stop payment order by the Customer; or (b) the return of the debit entry, or where a stop payment order applies to more than one debit entry relating to a specific authorization involving a specific originator, the return of all such debit entries. A request for ACH Stop Payment for a Non-Consumer Account will effective until the earlier of: (a) six (6) months from date the Stop Payment was requested; (b) the withdrawal of the stop payment order by the Customer; or (c) the return of the debit entry, or where a stop payment order applies to more than one debit entry relating to a specific authorization involving a specific originator, the return of all such debit entries.

An ACH Stop Payment for a preauthorized ACH debit must be made at least three (3) Banking Days prior to the scheduled debit date. Helm requires your name and the Account number associated with the preauthorized ACH debit, and the exact: Name of the payee, the exact payment amount and scheduled debit date.

To the extent permissible under applicable NACHA or ACH rules, renewals of ACH Stop Payments may be granted in Helm's sole discretion. Each renewal is treated as a new ACH Stop Payment order. If Customer wants the ACH Stop Payment order to expire in less than six months, Customer must cancel the ACH Stop Payment order on or before the date Customer wants it to expire. Customer's request to cancel the ACH Stop Payment order is not effective until Helm has a reasonable opportunity to act on it. Helm will cancel the ACH Stop Payment order automatically when the Account on which the item is drawn is closed. To the extent permissible under applicable NACHA or ACH rules, no ACH Stop Payment request, nor the renewal or revocation thereof, shall be valid or effective unless it: (a) is in writing and is signed by Customer (or if more than one Customer, any one of them) or any Authorized Person on the particular Account, (b) specifies the Account number and the date and amount of the ACH debit (Helm may also require the name of the person who authorized the ACH debit and the name of the party to whom the ACH debit was made payable), and (c) is delivered to Helm Office on a Banking Day during regular Banking Hours with sufficient time to provide Helm with the opportunity to act. Helm may also need the date the prior ACH debit from the sender was posted to the Account so that Helm can obtain the sender name and sender identification number. Otherwise, Customer must provide Helm with the sender name and sender identification number.

26. Debit/ATM Card(s)

You may request a Debit/ATM Card by submitting to Bank a completed Personal Account Application or Debit/ATM Card Request Form. Upon approval by Helm, a Debit/ATM Card will be delivered to you. With your Debit/ATM Card you will be able to withdraw funds from your Account. You may use your Debit/ATM Card at participating ATMs and for point-of-sale transactions to purchase goods or services with merchants that accept VISA® Cards. ATM fees may be assessed by the ATM service provider. For information regarding the participating ATM networks, please contact the Helm.

You should securely protect your Debit/ATM Card and PIN from loss or theft. Each cardholder must have his or her own unique PIN for the Debit/ATM Card and is responsible for maintaining confidentiality of the PIN. Memorize the PIN. Never write the PIN on the ATM/Debit Card or share it with anyone, including our employees. Never allow anyone else to use the Debit/ATM Card or PIN. If the Debit/ATM Card or PIN are given to another person, the Account owner will be responsible for all transactions made by that person or anyone else to whom that person gives the ATM/Debit Card or PIN. Notify us immediately if the Debit/ATM Card is lost or stolen, or is no longer secure.

Fees: See our separate Products, Services & Fee Schedule.

27. Large Cash Withdrawals

We may place reasonable restrictions on a large cash withdrawal. These restrictions include requiring you to provide reasonable advance notice to ensure we have sufficient cash on Hand. We do not have any obligation to provide security if you make a large cash withdrawal. If you want to deposit cash for a very large amount, we have the right to require you to provide adequate security or exercise other options to mitigate possible risks.

28. Statements of Account

Helm will mail, send electronically, or otherwise make available to you an Account statement reflecting your Account activity for each statement period. Helm will do the same with notices.

Helm is authorized and directed to mail for each Account (except Time Deposits), to your last known address and at the close of each accounting period for the particular Account (as determined by Helm from time to time), a statement pertaining to the Account activity for the preceding accounting period, unless Helm is directed by you in writing to place the Account subject to a Hold Mail arrangement (see Paragraph 38) or E-Statement arrangement (see Paragraph 29). Helm will also send confirmations on your Time Deposits ("Confirmations") unless your Accounts are subject to a Hold Mail arrangement or E-Statement arrangement.

Helm shall have no liability for the safe delivery of Statements/Confirmations and accompanying items and documents mailed to Customer. If any Statements/ Confirmations are returned to Helm because of an incorrect address, Helm may stop sending Statements/Confirmations to you until the address is rectified by Customer.

You agree to exercise reasonable care by promptly examining each statement and all accompanying items and documentation upon receipt, and promptly reporting to Helm any problem, irregularity or error in the Statements/Confirmations or in the Account, and particularly, any problem, irregularity or error relating to any payment, transfer, withdrawal, debit or credit in the Account. Because you are in the best position to detect problems, irregularities or errors of account, unauthorized signatures, endorsements or alterations of items, Customer shall be fully precluded from asserting any dispute or difference as to a Statement/Confirmation and from asserting any claim or cause of action against Helm for any payment, withdrawal, debit or transfer described in a Statement/Confirmation or evidenced by any of the accompanying items or documentation if: (a) you fail to exercise reasonable care in delivering written notice to Helm at the Helm Office of any alleged problem, irregularity or error within twenty (20) calendar days after the Statement/ Confirmation, items or documentation shall have been mailed or made available to Customer, whichever is earlier, or (b) the item was forged so cleverly (as by unauthorized use of facsimile machine or otherwise) that the forgery or alteration could not be detected by a Helm employee. If you fail to provide such notice, you shall also be precluded from asserting against Helm any unauthorized signatures or alterations by the same wrongdoer on items paid by Helm after the time period mentioned above lapsed, but before Helm receives notice. You shall not be relieved of this obligation by reason of the fact that the Statement/Confirmation and accompanying documentation have been placed on Hold Mail; Customer being under an affirmative obligation to retrieve such Statement/Confirmation and accompanying documentation at the Helm Office on the date that the Statement/ Confirmation and documentation are customarily sent or made available, and to review them within the twenty (20) calendar day period specified above. Similarly, you shall not be relieved of this duty by reason of the fact that any Statement/ Confirmation and accompanying items or documents were not received or made available to you, unless you shall notify Helm in writing thereof within twenty (20) calendar days from the date they are customarily sent or made available.

29. E-Statements

You may elect, in writing, to instruct the Helm to make monthly Statements of Account (and copies of checks) and the Confirmations of Time Deposits available to you exclusively in electronic form (collectively "E-Statement(s)") via our online banking platform ("HelmInOne"). You understand that by electing to receive E-Statements, you will not receive any Statements/Confirmations or copies of checks, except as otherwise provided herein. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Helm shall have the right, at its sole discretion, should it deem it necessary or advisable in order to protect, maintain and/or assert any rights of Helm in regards to you, the Account(s) or any of your transactions with Helm, or for any other reason, to mail, send and/or deliver any Statements/Confirmations as well as checks, items, debit memos, and/or credit memos in printed form to you at your last known address appearing in Helm's records.

You expressly agree and acknowledge that by electing to utilize E-Statements you are not relieved of your obligation to carefully review and examine each E-Statement immediately upon receipt, and to promptly report to Helm any problem, irregularity or error in any E-Statement or in any items or documents accompanying same, and particularly any problem, irregularity or error relating to any payment, transfer, withdrawal, debit or credit in the Account(s), pursuant to Paragraph 28 of this Agreement. You agree and acknowledge that you are under an affirmative obligation to access and review the E-Statement on the date that an E-Statement is customarily made available to you via HelmInOne. Helm may terminate the E-Statement arrangement at any time.

Customer shall not be relieved of the duty to examine any E-Statement by reason of the fact that such E-Statement was not made available to you via HelmInOne, unless Customer notifies Helm, in writing, of the non-availability of such E-Statement within sixty (60) days of the date the E-Statement is customarily made available.

FOR NON-CONSUMER ACCOUNTS: You agree and acknowledge, as set forth in Paragraph 28 of this Agreement, that you shall be fully precluded from asserting any dispute or difference as to any E-Statement and from asserting any claim, demand or cause of action against Helm for the payment of any item listed or evidenced by any E-Statement, unless the Helm receives written notice from you of the alleged problem, irregularity or error within twenty (20) days of the date that such E-Statement is made available to you.

30. Returned Statements

Your Account statements or notices will be considered unclaimed or undeliverable if:

- Two or more Account statements or notices are returned to us through the mail because of an incorrect address; or
- We notify you electronically that your Account statement is available for online viewing and we receive email notifications that our message is undeliverable.
- In either event, we may.
- Discontinue sending Account statements and notices, and
- Destroy Account statements and notices returned to us as undeliverable

We will not attempt to deliver Account statements and notices to you until you provide us with a valid postal or electronic address.

31. Adverse Claims

An adverse claim occurs when:

- Any person or entity makes a claim against your Account funds,
- We believe a conflict exists between or among your Account's owners, or
- We believe a dispute exists over who has Account ownership or authority to withdraw funds from your Account.

In these situations, we may take any of the following actions without any responsibility to you:

- Continue to rely on the documents we have on file for your Account,
- Honor the claim against your Account funds if we are satisfied the claim is valid. Freeze all or a part of the funds in your Account until we believe the dispute is resolved to our satisfaction.
- Close your Account and send a check for the available balance in your Account payable to you or to you and each person or entity who claimed the funds.
- Pay the funds into an appropriate court.

We also may charge any Account you maintain with us for our fees and expenses in taking these actions (including attorney's fees and expenses).

32. Insufficient Funds/Overdrafts

If the balance of collected funds in an Account is insufficient to pay an item or items drawn by you thereon, we will not be required to pay such item(s), but you agree to pay a service charge for the processing and return of the item(s). If we, at our sole discretion, agree to pay such item, we may deduct an overdraft charge from the Account ("Overdraft Charge"), and you agree to pay the overdraft balance and the Overdraft Charge within five (5) calendar days from the date of the overdraft. In the event of an overdraft balance in an Account, we shall have the right, at our sole discretion, to charge you interest on the amount of the overdraft at such interest rate as we deem appropriate (but not to exceed the highest interest rate allowed by applicable law) ("Overdraft Interest"), and to set-off against or charge to any Account which you may have at Helm, the amount of such overdraft and Overdraft Interest thereon, without prior notice to or the consent of the Customer. Helm makes no representation that Helm's Overdraft Interest is the lowest or best rate of interest offered by Helm for overdrafts or for loans of any other kind. In order to provide funds with which to pay an item presented for payment on an Account, or to cover an overdraft in an Account we may, at our sole discretion, transfer funds from one Account of yours to another Account of yours, regardless of whether either Account is joint or single and/or a Demand Deposit, Money Market or a Time Deposit Account; however, in the absence of a specific written agreement to the contrary with you, Helm shall be under no obligation to provide funds from another Account. You may specifically request in writing, in the appropriate form provided by Helm, that Helm grant you, subject to such terms and conditions we deem appropriate, a credit facility whereby you will be permitted from time to time to overdraft a specified Account up to a specified aggregate maximum amount not to be exceeded at any one time ("Overdraft Facility").

33. Prohibited Pledge or Encumbrance

You cannot pledge and/ or encumber an Account or any interest therein without the prior written consent of Helm, which must be obtained after reasonable written notice has been given to Helm of such intended pledge or encumbrance. Any such pledge and/ or encumbrance must be effectuated through a written instrument acceptable to Helm in form and substance. You cannot transfer legal or beneficial ownership of an Account without our consent except as a result of death, bankruptcy, divorce, marriage, incompetency, or judicial attachments. No transfer or assignment of an Account shall be valid unless notice of the assignment has been given to Helm in written form satisfactory to Helm, and then only after Helm has given written approval and has had reasonable time to record the transfer or assignment on its books and records. In general, it is not the policy of Helm to allow transfers or assignments of Accounts.

34. Stop or Hold Payments

You may request in writing the stop payment of an item, or the conditional hold payment (until its date) of a "post-dated" item, if the item has not already been paid (hereinafter collectively a "Stop Payment"). No Stop Payment request, nor the renewal or revocation thereof, shall be valid or effective unless it: (a) is in writing and is signed by Customer (or if more than one Customer, then any one of them) or any Authorized Person on the particular Account, (b) specifies the Account number and the number, date, amount and payee of the check, and (c) is delivered to Helm Support via e-mail at support@helmbankusa.com on a Banking Day during Banking Hours with sufficient time to provide Helm with the opportunity to act. A Stop Payment received by Helm during Banking Hours will be posted to the Account after the close of Helm's Banking Day. If the Stop Payment is received after 4:00 p.m. ET, the Stop Payment will be posted on the next Banking Day.

A request for Stop Payment will be effective for a maximum period of six (6) months, but a renewal may be requested in writing prior to the expiration of the six (6) month period. Renewals may be granted at Helm's sole discretion. Each renewal is treated as a new Stop Payment order. If Customer wants the Stop Payment order to expire in less than six months, Customer must cancel the order on or before the date Customer wants it to expire. Customer may cancel the Stop Payment order in writing. Customer's request to cancel the Stop Payment order is not effective until it is received by Helm and Helm has had a reasonable opportunity to act on it. Helm will cancel the Stop Payment order automatically when the Account on which the item is drawn is closed. If the item is presented for payment after the Stop Payment request expires, Helm may pay the item.

If Helm pays an item for which a valid and effective Stop Payment request was received, Helm will not be liable to you for any indirect or consequential damages. You agree not to hold Helm responsible if the item is paid because of misidentification so long as Helm has followed its usual procedures for handling a Stop Payment order. By requesting a Stop Payment, you agree to: (i) reimburse us for any loss that results from nonpayment of the check; (ii) cancel the Stop Payment promptly and in writing if the check is destroyed or otherwise taken out of circulation; (iii) notify us in writing before you issue a replacement for the check; and (iv) write on the face of the new check the word "Replacement" and a number and date different from that of the original check.

35. Stale-Dated, Post-Dated and other Checks

If a stale-dated check (that is, one which is more than six months old) is presented for payment against an Account, we may pay the check or return it at our sole discretion. Furthermore, if a post-dated check is presented for payment against an Account or a Check is presented which contains an expiration date, we may pay the check or return it at our sole discretion. This provision will apply to any check which contains an expiration date, including, a check which contains a legend on the face of the check stating: "Void after [any specified date or time period]." It is your duty to notify Helm in writing of your issuance of any postdated check prior to its presentation for payment, giving a complete description of the item, including the payee, the date, the check number, and the amount of the check; in the absence of such written notice, Helm shall not be liable for paying any post-dated check before the date written on the check, or in the case of a check with an expiration date, after its expiration date. A charge may be made for each such item issued by the Customer.

36. Helm Online Services ("HelmInOne")

Your access to and use of the products and/or services offered by Helm through HelmInOne shall be governed by the Online Banking Agreement.

- Allows the Customer to view Account balances and statements.
- Allows the Customer to transfer funds between your existing Accounts.

37. Electronic Communications

If you have elected to authorize the Helm to act upon electronic communications, then this Paragraph shall apply to any communications (other than Payment orders governed by Paragraph 36 of this Agreement) which are transmitted by telephone facsimile, or other electronic means to the Helm by you or by any person representing himself to be any of you or to be an authorized representative of yours (all such communications to which this Paragraph applies being referred to as “Electronic Communications”), including without limitation any such communications regarding deposits or regarding transfers or withdrawals of funds, securities, or other assets to or from any of your Accounts, as well as instructions requesting the issuance of letters of credit (or amending, or waiving discrepancies under, letters of credit) and instructions requesting loans or concerning the purchase or sale of foreign exchange, certificates of deposit, securities, or other assets. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Agreement, of the Account Application, or any related agreements or documents, Helm may elect, in its sole and absolute discretion and on a case-by-case basis, to comply or refuse to comply with any instruction or request of yours that is governed by this Paragraph. Furthermore, if Helm so elects, in its sole and absolute discretion and on a case by case basis, it may, rather than simply refusing to comply with an Electronic Communication: (a) comply therewith in part only; (b) delay in complying therewith (in whole or in part) until additional information is received by Helm; or (c) take such other action as, in Helm’s sole judgment, may be advisable to give effect or attempt to give effect to such Electronic Communication as Helm understands it. Notwithstanding any oral acceptance of any Electronic Communication by any officer, employee, or agent of Helm, Helm may, for any reason or without cause, elect to reject any such Electronic Communication in whole or in part. The Helm is hereby authorized and directed by you to respond to any inquiry made by Electronic Communication relating to the status of any Account of yours. The authorizations and any restrictions contained in this Section shall continue in effect until the Helm receives, and has the opportunity and sufficient time to act upon, written notice of your decision no longer, to transmit any Electronic Communications to Helm. Helm may, in its discretion, require additional documentation from corporations, partnerships and any other organizations electing to be subject to this Section. You hereby acknowledge that, if the Helm elects to act upon an Electronic Communication, the Helm does so as an accommodation to you. Therefore, the Helm may elect to accept an Electronic Communication or purported Electronic Communication that it believes to be genuine, and the Helm shall in no event whatsoever have any liability to any Customer or to any third parties as a result thereof; and each Customer hereby agrees to indemnify Helm, its affiliates and their respective agents, officers, directors, employees, attorneys, successors and assigns (collectively, the “Indemnified Parties”) with respect to all claims, demands, causes of action, liabilities, losses, damages, costs, and expenses (including any attorneys’ fees, whether incurred at trial, on appeal, or without litigation) which may result from any actions at any time taken in response to any purported Electronic Communications, whether or not such purported Electronic Communications are genuine and whether or not authorized by you. For more information regarding Electronic Communications, please refer to the E-SIGN ACT DISCLOSURE STATEMENT.

38. Electronic Funds Transfers

The following terms and conditions shall, at all times, govern all funds transfer transactions effectuated by you through any of your Accounts at Helm (except for those payments effectuated by check or drafts) as well as all funds transfers received by any of your Accounts at Helm (except for check or draft deposits). The provisions of this Paragraph shall not apply to funds transfers initiated through HelmInOne, which shall be governed by the Online Banking Agreement. Unless Helm has otherwise agreed in writing, we will notify you of funds debited or credited to your Account through the Statement covering the period in which the transaction occurred. Helm is under no obligation to provide you with any additional notice or receipt.

A. Definitions

Helm SHALL HAVE NO OBLIGATION OR RESPONSIBILITY TO DETECT ERRORS CONTAINED IN A PAYMENT ORDER, AND Customer CONFIRMS THAT THE SECURITY PROCEDURE (HEREINAFTER DESCRIBED) IS NOT DESIGNED TO DETECT ERRORS.

An International Service Assessment ("ISA") fee of 1% will be applied to each international transaction (which is a transaction occurring in any country outside the United States, Puerto Rico or the U.S. Virgin Islands), regardless of whether foreign currency is converted. D. EFT'S Initiated by Third Parties

The Customer may authorize a third party to initiate electronic funds transfers between their Account and the third party's account. These transfers to make or receive payment may be one-time occurrences or may recur as directed by the Customer. These transfers may use the Automated Clearinghouse (ACH) or other payments network. The Customer authorization to the third party to make these transfers can occur in a number of ways. In some cases, the Customer authorization can occur when the merchant posts a sign informing the Customer of their policy. In all cases, the transaction will require the Customer to provide the third party with the Customer Account number and bank information. This information can be found on your checks as well as on a deposit or withdrawal slip. Thus the Customer should only provide your bank and Account information (whether over the phone, the internet, or via some other method) to trusted third parties whom the Customer has authorized to initiate these electronic funds transfers. Examples of these include, but are not limited to:

- Preauthorized credits. The Customer makes arrangements for certain direct deposits to be accepted into their checking or savings Account(s). For example, the Customer authorizes their employer in writing to pay their paycheck through direct deposit to their Account. The Customer provides their employer with Account and routing number information to enable the employer to credit their Account. The transfers are processed electronically through ACH and the Account is credited for the amount of their pay check each payday.
- Preauthorized debits. The Customer can make arrangements to pay certain recurring bills from their checking or savings Account(s). For example, the Customer can give advanced written authorization to companies that provide service to the Customer, to debit their Account electronically each month in the amount of their monthly bill.
- ACH, Preauthorized electronic fund transfer. The Customer can purchase goods from a merchant and provide the merchant with a voided check which allows the merchant to capture routing, account and serial number information. The transaction is processed electronically through ACH, and the Customer's Account is debited for the purchase price of the goods. Another example is if the Customer sends a check to a merchant who bills the Customer on a periodic basis. The merchant uses the information on the check to process the payment electronically through ACH and the Customer's Account is debited for the bill.
- Electronic check conversion. The Customer may provide a check to a merchant or service provider who will scan the check for the encoded bank and account information. The merchant or service provider will then use the information to convert the transaction into an electronic funds transfer. This may occur at the point of purchase, or when the Customer provides the check by other means such as by mail.

E. EFT Limitations on Frequency and Amount

There may from time to time be limits on the dollar amount of electronic fund transfers that the Customer can make. These limits are for security reasons and may change from time to time. There may be additional limitations elsewhere in this agreement. The Customer's ability to initiate transactions also may be limited by the terms of other agreements that the Customer might have with Helm or as described in other disclosures Helm might have made to the Customer, or by applicable law. The Customer agrees to abide by and be bound by all applicable limitations.

- The Customer may withdraw up to a maximum of $505.00 per day – provided that there are enough funds in the Customer's Account with their ATM card and $505.00 per day with their Visa Debit Card.
- The Customer may purchase up to a maximum of $1,500.00 worth of goods and services per day where a PIN is accepted, without a PIN the daily purchase limit is $1,500.00, exclusive of ATM withdrawals – provided that there are enough funds in the Customer's Account.
- Transfers from Savings and/or Money Market Accounts to another Account or to third parties through preauthorized or automatic transfer, or telephone agreement, order or instructions, or by check, draft, debit card, or similar order may be limited to no more than six transfers and withdrawals, or a combination of such transfers and withdrawals, per statement cycle.

- Transfers from a Savings Account to another Account or to third parties through preauthorized or automatic transfer, or telephone agreement, order or instructions, or by check, draft, debit card, or similar order may be limited to no more than six transfers and withdrawals, or a combination of such transfers and withdrawals, per statement cycle.

F. Financial Institution's Liability

If the Helm does not complete a transfer to or from the Customer's Account on time or in the correct amount according to the Helms agreement with the Customer, the Helm will be liable for the Customers losses or damages. However, there are some exceptions. The Helm will not be liable, for instance:

- If through no fault of the Helm, the Customer does not have enough money in their Account to make the transfer.
- If the Customer has an overdraft line and the transfer would go over the credit limit.
- If the automated teller machine where the Customer is making the transfer does not have enough cash.
- If the terminal or system was not working properly and the Customer knew about the breakdown when the Customer started the transfer.
- If circumstances beyond the Helms control (such as fire or flood) prevent the transfer, despite reasonable precautions that the Helm has taken.
- If the Helm has reasons to believe that a transaction has not been properly authenticated or is fraudulent.
- If the funds in the Customer's Account are subject to legal process or other encumbrance restricting the transfer.
- There may be other exceptions stated in the Helms agreement with the Customer.

Liability for failure to stop payment of preauthorized transfer – If you order us to stop one of these payments 3 business days or more before the transfer is scheduled, and we do not do so, we will be liable for your losses or damages.

G. Confidentiality

The Helm will disclose information to third parties about the Customer's Account or the transfers the Customer make:

- Where it is necessary for completing transfers; or
- In order to verify the existence and condition of the Customer's Account for a third party, such as a credit bureau or merchant; or
- In order to comply with government agency or court orders; or
- To collect any debt that the Customer may owe to the Helm or any of the Helms affiliates.
- In accordance with the Customers written permission.
- Is otherwise permitted by the terms of the Bank's Privacy Policy.

H. Unauthorized Transfers

Consumer Liability: The Customers are responsible for any EFT transaction that the Customers make with their card and PIN. The Customer are also responsible for any EFT transaction made by someone else to whom the Customer has given their card or PIN.

Tell us AT ONCE if you believe your card or PIN has been stolen, or if you believe that an electronic fund transfer has been made without your permission using information from your check. Telephoning is the best way of keeping your possible losses down. You could lose all the money in your Account (plus your maximum overdraft line of credit). Also, if your monthly statement shows EFT transactions made with your card and PIN that you did not make (or give someone permission to make for you), tell us AT ONCE.

If you tell us within two (2) business days after learning that your card or PIN have been lost or stolen, the liability shall not exceed the lesser of $50 or the amount of unauthorized transfers. If the consumer exceeds the two (2) business day limit, the Customers liability still will not exceed $500.

If you do not notify us within sixty (60) days after we mail your statement covering the period in which an unauthorized transfer was made, you may be liable for up to the entire amount of any loss. If Helm would have been able to have prevented a loss if you had notified Helm prior to the expiration of such sixty (60) day period, you will be liable for all such losses. Helm may, in its sole discretion, extend this time limit if we determine, in our sole discretion, that such a delay was for a good reason (such as a hospital stay).

Additional limits on liability for VISA Debit Card. Unless the Customer has been grossly negligent or have engaged in fraud, the Customer will not be liable for any unauthorized transactions using their lost or stolen Visa card. This additional limit on liability does not apply to ATM transactions or to transactions using the Customers Personal Identification Number which are not processed by Visa. Visa is a registered trademark of Visa International Service Association.

Contact in Event of Unauthorized Transfer. If you believe your card and PIN has been lost or stolen or that someone has or may use them to withdraw money from your deposit Account without your permission, telephone the number or write to the address listed in this brochure, located under the Error Resolution Procedures For Electronic Transfer.

I. Payment Orders

Payment orders for funds transfer transactions and the cancellation or amendment thereof ("Payment Order(s)"), shall be communicated to Helm only via telefax, E-Mail or through HelmlnOne or by original writing. Payment Orders must be sent to and received at Helm Office. Payment Orders must be received at Helm Office on a Banking Day and before such cut-off time(s) as Helm designates from time to time for Payment Orders. Payment Orders not received on a Banking Day or received after the designated cut-off time(s) shall not be processed by Helm until its next succeeding Banking Day.

We reserve the right to process Payment Orders received by Helm from its various customers in such order as is determined by Helm, at its sole discretion. We further reserve the right to reject or delay its acceptance and/or execution of any Payment Order which Helm determines is unclear, incomplete or otherwise unsatisfactory to Helm. Helm will use its best efforts to provide you with written notice of its rejection of any Payment Order on or prior to the execution date of the Payment Order, using the same means of communication used by you to transmit the Payment Order to Helm; provided, however, that Helm shall not be liable to you for interest compensation as a result of its failure to give such notice. You agree that this procedure constitutes a commercially reasonable means of notice.

No Payment Order shall contain, and the Helm shall have no duty or obligation to execute any Payment Order that contain any condition to its execution except that you may specify the date of payment.

If a Payment Order does not specifically designate the Account which is to serve as the source of payment of the Payment Order, any of your Accounts at Helm shall be an authorized Account for such Payment Order, if payment of the Payment Order from that Account is not inconsistent with any restrictions imposed by you on the use of that Account. Helm may condition its acceptance and/or execution of a cancellation or amendment of the Payment Order by any one or all of the following: (a) receipt of adequate information reasonably identifying the original Payment Order; (b) an indemnity or bond holding Helm harmless from any and all liability arising from Helm's execution of the amendment; (c) Helm's receipt of sufficient notice to provide it with a reasonable opportunity to act; and (d) compliance with the Security Procedure (hereafter described).

J. Authorized Persons

Any person(s) who are authorized signors on the Account from which the funds transfer is to be effectuated shall be deemed to be an Authorized Person on such Account for a Payment Order.

K. Security Procedure and Verification

All Payment Orders issued by you to Helm on an Account shall be subject to verification by Helm prior to execution, in accordance with the Security Procedure described in the Account Application or such other application or form made available by Helm, to be delivered by Helm and completed by you, the terms of which are incorporated herein by reference (the "Security Procedure"). You hereby confirm that the Security Procedure is COMMERCIALY REASONABLE in light of your circumstances and requirements, and the type and frequency of funds-transfer transactions contemplated by you through the Accounts. You further confirm that the Security Procedure was mutually agreed upon between you and Helm after consideration of several commercially reasonable security procedures offered by Helm. At Helm's request, you will execute and deliver to Helm a receipt for the Security Procedure materials, in the form requested by Helm.

The Security Procedure is strictly confidential and should not be disclosed by you or an Authorized Person (hereinafter defined) to anyone else. You covenant to establish and maintain adequate procedures to safeguard the Security Procedure. You further covenant that, should you or an Authorized Person have reason to believe that the Security Procedure has become known to any unauthorized person, you shall immediately notify Helm Support, via e-mail at support@helmbankusa.com of such disclosure.

Upon verification of a Payment Order pursuant to the Security Procedure, Helm is authorized and directed to execute, pay, and/or act upon such Payment Order pursuant to its terms, without need of any further inquiry of you, and to debit the Account from which the funds transfer is to be effectuated. If a Payment Order is duly verified pursuant to the Security Procedure, except as otherwise provided by applicable law, such a Payment Order will be deemed effective as your Payment Order and you shall be obligated to pay Helm the amount of the Payment Order as provided therein, whether or not such Payment Order was in fact authorized by you or any of its Authorized Persons.

You acknowledge that the sole purpose of the Security Procedure is to verify the authenticity of Payment Orders, and not to determine their accuracy. You are solely responsible for any duplication of Payment Orders and for the accuracy of the content of Payment Orders and their transmission to Helm.

Notwithstanding any provisions herein to the contrary, Helm may refrain from executing a Payment Order if Helm believes that it may not have been authorized by you or that there may be a security breach with respect to any Account(s) affected thereby.

L. Beneficiary and Intermediary

You shall be solely responsible for correctly identifying the beneficiary's account and beneficiary's bank in each Payment Order. Furthermore, Helm may, at its discretion, require you to select and identify in a Payment Order, the intermediary bank(s) to be used in the funds-transfer. If you do not designate in a Payment Order the particular intermediary bank to be used by Helm in the funds transfer, Helm may choose in its sole discretion, the interbank to be used.

Helm shall rely exclusively upon the identifying number contained in a Payment Order for the intermediary or beneficiary's bank, as well as for the beneficiary's account. In the event of an inconsistency in a Payment Order between the name and identifying number of any intermediary or beneficiary's bank or beneficiary's account, you shall be solely and fully liable to Helm for any loss, damage, liability, expense and cost, including reasonable attorneys' fees, incurred by Helm as a result of such misdescription or inconsistency.

M. Funds Transfer System

You agree that Helm may use any means or routes which we in our sole discretion consider suitable to execute your funds transfers. Funds transfers to or from your Account will be governed by the rules of any funds transfer system through which the transfers are made, as amended from time to time, including, without limitation, Fedwire, and NACHA or any regional association. However, with respect to international remittance transfers, within the meaning given to such term in the Remittance Rule, to the extent of any inconsistencies between the above referenced rules and the provisions of the Remittance Rule, the provisions of Remittance Rule shall prevail. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, the rights and obligations that apply to such transfers are set forth in the Remittance Rule and, as applicable, as set forth in Florida law.

N. Restrictions

You confirm that you have not communicated to Helm any restrictions and/ or limitations whatsoever relevant to Payment Orders, other than those specifically noted in each Payment Order. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no such restrictions and/or limitations shall be binding upon Helm unless Helm has previously agreed to them in writing.

O. Record of Telephonic or Other Instructions and Communications

Helm may (but is not required to) record, electronically or otherwise, any communications, instructions, and other discussions between you and Helm that relate to the issue of past, present, or future funds transfers affecting your Account(s). You give your prior consent to these recordings, and it is the parties' intent that this prior consent be the prior consent to such recording, if any, required under applicable state law. Helm may retain these records for as long as it deems appropriate and may destroy them at any time in its sole discretion. We may disclose the contents of such records at such times, to such persons, and for such purposes as we deem appropriate in our sole discretion. The decision to record any telephone conversation shall be solely within Helm's discretion, and Helm has no liability whatsoever for failing to do so.

P. Overdraft

You agree that each Payment Order shall not exceed the balance of readily available funds in the Account from which the funds-transfer is to be effectuated, and that Helm shall have no duty to execute any Payment Order if it exceeds the balance of readily available funds in such Account. If Helm, at its sole discretion, agrees to execute a Payment Order thereby creating an overdraft in an Account, you agree to promptly pay Helm any overdraft balance resulting in such Account, the Overdraft Charge and the Overdraft Interest as set forth in Helm Products, Services & Fee Schedule made available by Helm, as same may be amended from time to time. Helm makes no representation that Helm's Overdraft Interest is the lowest or best rate of interest offered by Helm for overdrafts or for loans of any other kind. For avoidance of doubt, the Helm is authorized to provide your Mail to any Authorized Person for your Account(s) or other individual designated by you in your Account Application or such other application or form made available by Helm seeking to retrieve your Mail in person.

Helm shall hold the Mail for a period of one (1) year after same is ready for mailing or forwarding. At the retention of Mail for one (1) year without pick up by Customer, such Mail will be destroyed. Either party may discontinue the Hold Mail arrangement at any time by giving written notice to the other of such discontinuance, provided however, that Helm may continue to rely upon the terms here in until Helm has had a reasonable opportunity to act on the notice of discontinuance.

40. Bill Payment Service

This service is available for all Accounts except Time Deposit Accounts. The Customer may request this service by checking the appropriate box in the Account Application at the time an Account is established or by making a specific written request at any time thereafter. Helm then will pay, from time to time, bills that you specify to us in an acceptable written form and will debit your Account for the amount of each such bill that Helm pays on your behalf. Helm will also debit your Account for the applicable service charge which is then in effect, and which the Helm may change from time to time. You agree that the Helm shall have no obligation to review invoices, make inquiries, or take any other action for the purpose of determining independently the amount of a required payment, the name or address of a payee, or any other information relating to a requested bill payment. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, in the event you wish us to make future payments in amounts that are not now known (e.g., you wish us to pay a property tax bill each year), a written request must be made at the time the amount required to be paid (and all other relevant information) is known. You also agree that Helm is under no obligation to comply with your bill payment instructions if the designated Account does not have sufficient funds available at the time of requested payment. If there are insufficient funds available in your designated Account on the date a payment is requested, we will be under no obligation to attempt to complete the payment on subsequent Banking Days. Generally, payments will be processed on the date specified in your bill payment instructions. If, however, you specify a date which falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or holiday, the payment will not be processed until the next Banking Day. You must allow sufficient time for your payment to reach its destination. Helm will not be liable for any errors or delays in processing or making any such payment (including postal delays and processing delays by the payee), except errors or delays caused by Helm's gross negligence, or for Helm's inability to make any payment due to circumstances beyond Helm's control or if there are insufficient funds in your Account with which to make the payment. Your authorization will remain in effect until Helm receives written notice of cancellation. You hereby agree that, in the absence of Helm's gross negligence, you will indemnify and hold harmless each of the Indemnified Parties against and from any and all losses, damages, fines, penalties, expenses (including without limitation any attorneys' fees, whether incurred at trial, on appeal, or without litigation), and other liabilities that may at any time or times result from or relate to this service.

Please read this Federal Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act Disclosure Statement ("Disclosure Statement") and print/keep a copy for your records. As part of your relationship with us, we want to ensure you have all of the information you need to effectively manage your Accounts. Our goal is to provide you with as many options as possible for receiving your Account documents. We are required by law to give you certain information "in writing" – which means you are entitled to receive it on paper. We may provide this information to you electronically and use electronic records and signatures in our relationship with you in accordance with the prior consent you have granted pursuant to your Account Agreement (as defined below). By providing your consent in the Account Agreement to this Disclosure Statement, you have confirmed that you have the hardware and software described below, that you are able to receive and review Electronic Records (as defined below), and that you have an active email account. You are also confirming that you are authorized to, and do, consent on behalf of all the other Account owners, authorized signers, authorized representatives, delegates, product owners and/or service users identified with your Bank Products.

In our sole discretion, the Communications we provide to you, or that you sign or agree to at our request, may be in electronic form ("Electronic Records"). View additional examples of types of Communications that we may send as Electronic Records under this Disclosure Statement. We may also use electronic signatures and obtain them from you as part of our transactions with you.

Electronic Records may be delivered to you in a variety of ways. These various delivery methods are described in your Account Agreement or, as applicable, the Online Banking Agreement and in other agreements we may have with you from time to time. In some cases, you will be able to choose whether to receive certain Communications electronically, or on paper, or both. We will provide you with instructions on how to make those choices when they are available. We may always, in our sole discretion, provide you with any Communication in writing, even if you have chosen to receive it electronically.

Sometimes the law, or our agreement with you, requires you to give us a written notice. You must still provide these notices to us on paper, unless we specifically tell you in another Communication how you may deliver that notice to us electronically. There are certain Communications that by law we are not permitted to deliver to you electronically, even with your consent. So long as required by law, we will continue to deliver those Communications to you in writing. However, if the law changes in the future and permits any of those Communications to be delivered as Electronic Records, this Disclosure Statement will automatically cover those Communications as well. We will continue to provide your tax statements on paper unless you separately elect to receive them electronically (if available).

If you decide not to use Electronic Records and signatures in connection with the new product or service, your decision does not mean you have withdrawn your consent for any other Bank Product. You agree that we may satisfy our obligation to provide you with an annual copy of our Privacy Policy or keeping it available for review on the Bank's website, or, with prior notice to you, on another website where we offer Electronic Service.

Please refer to the applicable agreement for any fee that may apply.
